Memorandum on "Psycho-Military Aspects of Soviet Aggression."

REFERENCE : Letter from [REDACTED] to DCI dated February 7, 1951 25X1A5a1

25X1A5a1 1. I have examined the memorandum referred to in the attached letter from [REDACTED]. It covers a subject, psychological warfare, the intelligence aspects of which we have turned over to the State Department as their primary responsibility. 25X1A5a1 They have received [REDACTED] proposals and are currently studying them.

2. From my participation in the [REDACTED] I could see that many of the general considerations [REDACTED] 25X1A5a1 advances are examined in the [REDACTED] His proposals are 25X1A5a1 very general and I do not feel that CIA needs to give them detailed study in view of the analysis being made by State.

3. I have passed the memorandum on to O/PC for their information.

4. I suggest a non-committal reply to [REDACTED] saying 25X1A5a1 that we thank him for his memorandum and that we are studying it.
